

Glass & architecture competition, 2015 Glass Biennial Event

ESGAA is now staging the 2015 6th edition of the international glass Biennial Event due from October 15 to November 29 in Alsace, France. Within the frame of the event, ESGAA is launching a competition in close collaboration with Glasmalerei Peters (www.glasmalerei.de).

The competition "Glass and Architecture" and is open to any artist willing to use one or several glass techniques without size limitations

-laminated glass sheets,
-laminated glass with digital printing,
-slumped glass,
-decorated or painted laminated glass
-sandblasted glass
-stained glass
and the like

Three proposals will be selected by the jury and realised by Glasmalerei Peters. The 3 prize-winners will work at Glasmalerei Peters in Germany in cooperation to produce the work.

The artists will stay on location as needed. Travel costs will be borne by the artists.

Glasmalerei Peters will put an apartment at their disposal and pay for transfer between Neuenbecken and Paderborn if they wish.

Information and the entry is available on line : <http://concoursesgaa.free.fr> and will be confirmed and documents will be stored on line on a specific site.

Registration deadline October 15 2014. Incomplete files shall be disregarded. All documents need to be digitized and include :

- a valid scanned ID.
- personal data (name, nationality, address, email, site, phone number)
- a 1-page cv/bio
- an outline of the project –name, optional technological description, draft.

- a 1-page description stating the relevance of the project. Any specific right to intellectual/artistic property right ought to be noticed.

- one project per by artist –whether individual or group.

Selection will be done online. The jury will consist of 6 members and such criteria as creativity, relevance and feasibility will be adhere.

Artists will be contacted individually. Works will be exhibited at Strasbourg Biennial Event Art Show. Design and executed works will remain the property of the artist. However, ESGAA and Glasmalerei Peters company wants the photo material free of copyrights from artists or photographer to allowed both parties to reproduce the works in printed matter or online without any limitations or costs. Artists are requested to become ESGAA members.

Further information is available at contact@biennaleduverre.eu